

"A Christian based charity aiming to tackle abject poverty in poor children everywhere."

We seek to provide for the total physical well-being of children through, education, feeding and healthcare.

The charity currently operates 6 projects and provides full-time education for many hundreds of children on the Atlantic Coast of Columbia."

For more information, volunteering opportunities, fundraising events, personal donations see the website listed below.

oasisofhope-uk.org